

FRIENDS SPEAKERS FORUM 2018

Monday, January 29, 2018
7 pm – 8 pm
Morgan Hill Library
660 West Main Avenue (408) 779-3196

Former journalist, professor, and media researcher John Mcmanus brings a candid perspective and practical method to separating real from fake or misleading news. With recent examples in the 2017 edition, he provides "basic tools and habits of mind" for evaluating the reliability and trustworthiness of the information we receive. Join the conversation!

Book available for library check out, also copies for signing at the talk.
