"Invisible Wounds of War"

2013 Silicon Valley Reads
Events at the Morgan Hill Library

Sue Diaz, author of Minifields of the Heart: A Mother's Stories of a Son at War, will discuss "invisible wounds" from a mother's perspective. In her book, she recounts the emotional rollercoaster her family and other soldiers' families experience both during deployment and returning home. Books available at BookSmart and at the event at 20% discount.

Thursday, January 31, 7:00 pm

Mary Cortani, founder of Operation Freedom Paws in Gilroy, will talk about her organization and how it helps war veterans begin the process of healing their "invisible wounds" by training their own service dogs. In recognition for her work, Mary was one of ten finalists for CNN's Hero of the Year award.

Tuesday, February 12, 7:00 pm

Volunteers Count

One thing that Friends like to do is to have fun and all are invited for an entertaining afternoon of potluck dining and no-holds-barred White Elephant gift opening on Sunday, February 17th.

The party starts at 3 pm at 1026 Llagas Road (.6 mile west on Llagas after turning off Hale). Bring an appetizer, salad or dessert and something wrapped that you think someone else might like (or you just want to get rid of!)

Please RSVP to Valerie by February 13th at 408-779-7337 or vjchambliss@gmail.com.

Volunteering Counts!

The most important hour of your week may be the one you give away.

Artist Scape Martinez' book published in Chinese

Scape Martinez, the artist who created the mural "Inspire" in the teen group study room, has had his first book published in Chinese. Now, GRAFF: the Art & Technique of Graffiti will be available to Chinese fans of the art form.

Friends Volunteers

In recent weeks we have lost a few of our regular bookstore volunteer cashiers for various reasons and so are looking for some replacements, as well as more substitutes.

If you are interested in working in the bookstore, please contact me to discuss options and to arrange training. If you are already a trained sub, check out the Google calendar to see when you might be needed:

<http://tinyurl.com/FMHLBookstoreCalendar>

February 23rd is the date of our Winter Book Sale. We will need volunteers to help in many capacities.

Set up for the sale takes place on Friday, February 22 at 12:30pm and usually takes just a couple of hours. We appreciate any help you can give to get this big job done.

Volunteers are also needed for the day of the sale—working as a cashier and clean-up at the end of the day. Please send me an email if this fits in your schedule.

We are so lucky to have such wonderful volunteers. Thank you for all the time and effort you put into making our book store and book sales a great success.

Thank
You

Volunteer Coordinator

With Condolences

We are sad to report the unexpected death of Friend Isabelle King on Dec 29. She was a regular volunteer in the Friends bookstore, and she will be missed. Our condolences to her family. We also offer sympathies to library staff member Kathleen Diaz, on the sudden death of her son Bryan.

FMHL President's Message

I hope you are all enjoying a great start to 2013. We ended 2012 with the Friends annual meeting that featured a fun and informative olive oil tasting with Carol Firenze. We learned about the history of olive oil, its uses beyond cooking and that "extra virgin" doesn't always mean it really is.

Things are in full swing at the Morgan Hill Library, as the Friends board met to establish a budget for the upcoming year and approve our librarian's requests for $41,000 for programs, services and furnishings. It is so satisfying to have the confidence to say "Yes!" to Peggy's requests, knowing that many volunteers and supporters will be working diligently all year to meet the challenge of funding these worthwhile projects.

If you have not yet renewed your Friends membership for 2013, please stop in at the bookstore to do so, or go online and make use of our PayPal system to pay your dues. We hope that you will want to continue to support the Friends and the library.

If you have noticed that the names of officers and committee chairs sound familiar, you are not wrong; all of the 2012 board agreed to continue to serve in 2013. However, we would certainly welcome fresh faces. Members are encouraged to attend the next board meeting on Tuesday, April 16th at 7 pm, and share new ideas and energy. As it stands, I am serving a second year as president, Teresa Stephenson is vice-president, Vicky Reader is secretary and Marti Jurik is treasurer. Joy Safakish keeps track of membership, Karen MacDonald organizes volunteers, Mary Ringo directs bookstore sales, Roberta Henderson runs online sales, Andrew Poth maintains our website, Jan Sanders takes care of publicity, Yvonne Duckett publishes our newsletter, and Carol O'Hare coordinates book sales.

We still need someone to organize programs or speakers forums during the year and a volunteer to take charge of refreshments for board meetings and library programs. Please contact me if you would like to be more involved with the Friends, and we can discuss possibilities.

I hope to see many of you at the Friends White Elephant Party on February 17.
Best wishes to all for a memorable 2013,
Valerie Chambliss

Climate Disruption: What Math and Science Have to Say

Two Bay Area mathematics institutes. AIM (www.aimath.org) and MSRI (www.msri.org), will co-host a public lecture at the Palace of Fine Arts in San Francisco on March 4 at 7:30 pm. The talk is part of the Mathematics of Planet Earth (MPE2013) initiative (see mpe2013.org) and will be sponsored by the Simons Foundation. The speaker, Emily Shuckburgh, is the head of Oceans Research at the British Antarctic survey and is reputed to be a terrific speaker. The presentation will be geared toward a general audience.

AIM is offering members and their guests complimentary tickets to the lecture. In addition, if 50 Morgan Hill people register, they will provide a bus to San Francisco at a nominal charge (perhaps $5 - $10 per person).

To obtain complimentary tickets, go to the website <http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/317234> and use the discount code "earth." If you wish to ride the bus, please contact Jan Conrey, jco5nrey@gmail.com for details.

The Bookworm Bulletin

Winter 2013

Do you...

We are looking for a volunteer to sell occasional items on EBAY.

We try to sell everything on AMAZON, but infrequently have donations that just aren't suitable for selling on AMAZON. They may be old, rare books, art posters, or more recently, Beatles memorabilia.

Ideally the volunteer would already have experience selling on EBAY. The volunteer job would involve:

- researching the item to determine a price,
- assessing and describing the condition of the item in detail and taking photos,
- listing the item on EBAY,
- monitoring the sales,
- answering questions from prospective buyers and,
- mailing the sold item.

This job will involve relatively infrequent sales, but once you list something, you will need to be available to follow through on the sale. Please contact Roberta Henderson, robtom1@verizon.net, if you are interested in being our EBAY on-line sales volunteer.
