Peggy's Pages

Notes from the Librarian

The Summer Challenge is upon us! There are many great events and activities for all ages and inclinations. Check some of them out on this page. Not only does the library have its regular slate of events, but the library has also been selected as an affiliate site for Google's 2015 Maker Camp. Participants will watch a video provided by Google and then construct a Maker project based on that week's theme. The camp runs from July 8 – August 12 from 1:00-2:15 pm. Registration is required and participants must be ages 10-17.

For more information about these programs and activities, click HERE.

Every child and teen who sign up for the summer reading program will get a free book and adults will receive a $3 coupon for the Friends'

Bookstore. There is a grand prize drawing for adults and teens who complete ten activities and log them online. They will have a chance to win an e-reader or an iPad mini. Children will get a free ticket to the Children's Discovery Museum.

All these programs are possible because of the generous support of the Friends. Thank you!

The Used Book Depository (AKA “the shed”) is now in place at the back of the library! The Friends purchased an 8 ft. by 10 ft. shed for storing our excess books and boxes between sales and painted it to match the library building. This has freed up other storage space, which both the Friends and library staff appreciate.

The plans for expansion of the library are advancing. The city has included the design phase in the 2015-2016 budget. This will be paid for with monies in the library impact fund that developers pay into. The city, the library, and the Friends are looking forward to expanding and improving the usability of our building. We have a floor plan posted in the bookstore with the changes shown in color. Be sure to come by and check it out. Our bookstore and sorting room will be moved and enlarged to more than double in size. We hope to start renovations within the next two years.

After two terms, our treasurer, Marti Jurik, will be stepping down at the end of the year. We appreciate all of Marti’s work for the Friends and are glad she will continue as a volunteer.

I would like to encourage our members to get more involved with the Friends. There are many ways you can help. Please contact me or any of our board members to learn more. We need your participation to keep our organization moving forward.

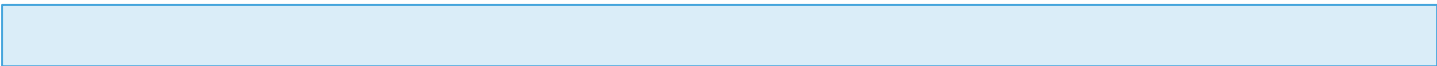

Come to the book sale on June 27, and stock up for summer reading!
